

Fig. 3.1. Evolution of an initial pressure perturbation, concentrated near the origin, into distinct simple waves propagating with velocities $-c_0$ and c_0 . The left column shows the pressure perturbation $q^1 = p$, and the right column shows the velocity $q^2 = u$. (Time increases going downwards.)